NOTES	GROUP DISCUSSION 1. Open with prayer. (2-5 min) 2. Share your story Describe a time when you experienced healing. How did this restorative event affect your soul? (7-10 min) 3. Discuss these questions with your group. (20-45 min) 4. Read Luke 8:40-56.
	There came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at Jesus' feet, he implored him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. (Luke 8:41-42)
	What are some challenges that would drive a person to plead with Jesus with Jairus's level of energy and passion?
	When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace." (Luke 8:42, 47-48)
	What is the significance of the woman's ailment lasting twelve years, and Jairus's daughter being twelve years old?
	How is it that this woman was healed without saying anything? What can we learn from her example?
	But taking her by the hand [Jesus] called, saying, "Child, arise." And her spirit returned, and she got up at once. And he directed that something should be given her to eat. And her parents were amazed, but he charged

Looking back at your notes from this week's message, was there anything you heard for the first time, stuck with you, challenged or confused you?

What is the one important thing you will take away from this weekend's message or our community group discussion? Is there any challenge, difficulty or praise that you would like to share with the group for prayer?

If Jesus can raise the dead, what other humanly-impossible requests can we make of Him?

What is an impossible request you would like to make of God?

them to tell no one what had happened. (vs. 54-56)

PLAN OF ACTION

Think of a particular emotion or physical challenge facing you or someone close to you. What would healing look like for you? (Or the person for whom you are concerned?) Pray to that end, no matter how impossible your requested outcome may seem.
