Council Charter

The Council was given the opportunity to make comments concerning the Church Council Charter. No questions were asked about the Church Council Charter. Jeff did spend the time to read through 10 points found in Appendix 2 of the Charter. No questions were raised. Jeff asked the Church Council Members to sign the Church Council Relationship Covenant page and return the sign copy to Jeff.

Covid-19 – report from the directional team

The State and Adams county moved from a RED status to an ORANGE status.

Thornton will move to 150 attenders for 9 and 11 o'clock services and Fort Lupton will remain at 75 attenders.

The staff will end the pod system.

Social distancing and the wearing of masks will continue. We continue to register for the service we

We are intending to continue moving forward until we reach full capacity at Thornton and Fort Lupton. (The State does not plan on going backwards but to continue moving forward).

We do not send people who did not register away.

Value of Unstuck

Matt asked whether he needed to provide a more formal report about the value of Unstuck for the January 31 business meeting. Rick Green indicated that he felt the Trustees would appreciate knowing the value of Unstuck for the church and the direction we are going.

Five Year Plan

Angie presented the five-year plan. She talked about the 90/120-day sprints that will help the church reach their goals. She also talked about how we would be tracking attendance. This information will be presented to the congregation at the January 31, 2021 Business Meeting.

Miscellaneous Items:

The next business meeting is scheduled for January 31, 2021.

The Church Council will be meeting on the 3rd Wednesday of the month to pray. Justin will be responsible for this prayer meeting.

Brian Moore is currently working at St. Anthony's North. He wants to be a chaplain in the Navy. He will be an intern under our church in order to qualify to be a chaplain. He came to us through Jan McCormick.

Respectfully submitted,
