	[The Pharisees] said to test [Jesus], that they might have some charge to bring against him. (John 8:4-6)
	When you judge others, do you focus only on their actions, or do you also start making assumptions about their motives?
	In Matthew, Jesus talks about some of the ways we can judge others:
	For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. (Matthew 7:2)
	Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. (Matthew 5:7)
	How does this unravel or confirm about your assumptions about others o yourself?
	Jesus stood up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said, "Neither do condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more." (John 8:10-11)
	How do you usually respond to feeling judged?
	How can Jesus help you process those experiences?
