NOTES	GROUP DISCUSSION 1. Open with prayer. (2-5 min)
	2. Share your story: What's the best thing money's ever done for you? (7-10 min)
	3. Read Luke 16:1-13
	4. Discuss these questions with your group. (20-45 min)
	The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness. (Luke 16:8)
	A shrewd person is someone who is streetwise, (with high emotional intelligence), who can turn difficult situations into something advantageout for everyone.
	How can a Christian be like this without moral compromise?
	For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. (Luke 16:8)
	What are a few non-sinful things that many non-Christians are better at than many believers? Why is that?
	I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings. (Luke 16:9)
	What is Jesus trying to tell us about the correlation between our relationships and our resources?

Looking back at your notes from this week's message, was there anything you heard for the first time, stuck with you, challenged or confused you?

What is the one important thing you will take away from this weekend's message or our community group discussion? Is there any challenge, difficulty or praise that you would like to share with the group for prayer?
