

How to: Be Happy

...erald and crystal: keepsakes of all kinds should gl without and within; hearts in ruby, and fervid letter opal: there should be illuminations, and miniatures, crowds of sculpture and arabesque in the smallest c pa... exquisite... every sh run round it; and, the easiest thing of all, there sh be a crystal with a key to it in the midst, that when heart was full, the locks of hair might be kissed.
How fortunate for empty hands, that one blessi the head can beat all these riches! and vet to imagine

Joy

1. Lately have you been more happy or sad? Explain why to the best of your ability.
2. Is there anything about God that helps you be happier? If so, what is it?
3. Read Psalm 68:3, and Deuteronomy 31:8. What does God say about being happy in these verses?
